Retired Air Force Chief Master Sgt. James W. Daniels, 87, a resident of Clinton, Md., died Saturday, Sept. 15, 2007, at Charlotte Hall Veterans Center, Charlotte Hall, Md. He was born Oct. 11, 1919, in Harnett County and graduated from Dunn High School.

Chief Daniels' military career spanned 35 years in the armed forces. He entered the Army Air Corps in April 1941. During World War II, Chief Daniels served in numerous maintenance functions, including flight engineer and gunner on B-24 Liberators and performed 40 combat missions during the Pacific Campaigns. He earned the Distinguished Flying Cross and two Air medals for his wartime service. He left the service after the war and returned in July 1947. He was one of the first members in the newly created United States Air Force in the fall of 1947.

After serving in mobile maintenance in France and Germany, Chief Daniels was assigned to Technical Training in Florida where he served as a flight engineer instructor. He was transferred to the D.C. area as a flight engineer for the Air Transport Squadron Special Missions at Washington National Airport in February 1957.

Chief Daniels relocated with the Special Missions operations when it moved to Andrews AFB in 1961. In July 1961 he joined the presidential aircrew as a flight engineer aboard Air Force One and remained in that position until he retired in April 1978, flying for Presidents Kennedy, Johnson, Nixon, Ford and Carter.

Post-retirement, Chief Daniels used his hobby of carpentry and woodworking skills in a position with the Woodworking and Carpentry Shop at Andrews AFB. After his second retirement, Chief Daniels continued his woodworking craft by creating flag and shadow boxes, clocks, cabinets and furniture items. He was a voracious reader and often frequented Prince Georges County Public Library. He was a member of the Sam Fox Organization, American Legion, Air Force Sergeants' Association, and Disabled American Veterans. Chief Daniels had continued his service by volunteering twice a week at Andrews AFB Malcolm Grow Medical Center's Records Office.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Elsie M. Haire Daniels and John W. Daniels; brothers, Leonard and Poindexter; sisters, Elsie Vernelle Walker and Anna Merle Faircloth; and nephew, Marvin Daniels.

A graveside service with full military honors will be held Thursday, Sept. 27 at Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Va. Mourners are to gather at the Administration Building at Arlington at 2:30 p.m.

Survivors include his wife of 62 years, Wanda Orwat Daniels; son, James W. Daniels Jr. of Albuquerque, N.M.; daughters, Patricia Daniels of Richmond, Va., and Judith Rubeck of West Linn, Ore.; grandsons, Will Rubeck of Bend, Ore., and Daniel Rubeck of Milwaukie, Ore.; great-grandsons, Christopher and Teddy Rubeck of Milwaukie; and sisters, Margaret Baker of Erwin and Irene Page of Fayetteville.

The family has requested no flowers. Memorial contributions or donations may be made to Hospice of St. Mary's County, P.O. Box 625, Leonardtown, MD 20650; or to Charlotte Hall Veterans Center, Attn: Memorial Contributions, 29449 Charlotte Hall Road, Charlotte Hall, MD 20622.
