Notes for RICHARD CREECH:
1775 - WILL OF RICHARD CREECH
Shared by Roy G. Creech

Richard Creech was killed by Tories at the beginning of the American Revolution in 1775. After he was killed, the younger children were reared by his brothers Simon and Ezekiel, Sr. Later the widow Mary Creech married Thomas Killen, a neighbor and one of the Executors of his Will. His birthplace was in old Johnston county, NC, now in Greene county. Of special note, Cumberland county representatives criticized the English for their treatment of the colonies in June 1775 (Wheeler, John Hill, Cumberland County, Chapter XXXIII, IN "Historical Sketches of North Carolina from 1584-1851", Regional Publishing Co., Baltimore, 1974 (copy in file of Roy G. Creech)! Hostilities had openly begun and an undeclared civil war was underway in NC in 1775. The Tories were on a rampage to suppress the rebellion!
