Notes for HERMAN GREEN BURCHETT:

News & Observer, The (NC)

11/23/2007

Herman Green Burchett, 98, passed away Saturday morning, November 17, 2007, at Croasdaile Village in Durham. Herman was born in 1909 to Julius and Dora Mae Burchett in Durham, where he resided all of his life. He attended Durham City Schools. After a brief period of employment with the weather bureau, Herman went to work for the U.S. Post Office.

In 1929 he married Ione Nichols, also of Durham. In World War II Herman served in the U.S. Navy. Following the war, he returned to the Post Office, where he remained until his retirement as Chief Accountant in 1969. He then was employed for a number of years at Duke University Medical Center. He was a long time member of First Baptist Church.

During his retirement, Herman was an avid bridge player, a member of the Durham Exchange Club, and, in his eighties, became very active in physical fitness, first at the VA, followed by the Wellness Institute and then at the YMCA, where he was a regular and enthusiastic participant in fitness programs well into his nineties. He greatly enjoyed telling jokes and at 95 compiled a book of his favorites. Up until the very end of his life he could reach into his memories and tell a joke perfect for the occasion.

Herman was preceded in death by his wife Ione, to whom he was married for 61 years; his brothers Raymond and Floyd.

He is survived by two sons, Bruce Burchett his wife, Julia and their children Matthew, Melissa, Megan and Jeremy, and Gary Burchett, his wife, Patricia and their children Sean and Thomas.

Following cremation a private service is planned. In lieu of flowers, the family would encourage a contribution to the Meals on Wheels program.
