Alice Dupree Raynor

News & Observer, The (Raleigh, NC)

01/17/2006

Alice Dupree Raynor, 101, of Oak Hill Assisted Living, Angier, went to meet her maker on January 16, 2006. She was preceded in death by her husband, James Broughton Raynor and her son, Ira Kent Raynor. She was an only child, born to Julia Pollard Dupree of Coats and Ira Dupree of Willow Spring, on January 18, 1905. Funeral services will be held 2:00 p.m. Wednesday at the Angier United Methodist Church with Eastern Star Rites. Burial to follow in the Angier Memorial Cemetery.

Survivors include her children, Julia R. Thomas of New Bern, Martha R. Gale of Angier, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Kent Raynor (Wandra) of Angier; grandchildren, Kathy Welch Parker and husband, Greg of Tarboro, Kimsey Welch and wife, Renee' of New Bern, Rick Raynor and wife, Terry of Raleigh, Adam Raynor and wife, Julie of Willow Spring, Dona Raynor of Venice, CA, Robbie Gale and Penny, of Rawlings, WY, Kenny Gale of Rawlings, WY, Jamie Sauls Brannon and husband, Keith of Greer, SC, Jane Thomas Choate and husband, Ron of Jacksonville, Ann Pittman and husband, Steve of Richmond, VA, Robbie Thomas and Cynthia of Fayetteville, NC; great-grandchildren, Corie, Caleb, Cody and Tony Gale, Matthew Parker, Kyle Brannon, Jake Welch, Madison, Trevor, and Tanner Raynor, Alex and Jarod Raynor, Jane Claire Choate and husband Chris, Stacey Cowardin, Brandon Cowardin and wife, Mila, Rachel and Sarah Thomas; great-great-grandchildren, Raghan, Allie, Logan and soon to be Luke; special cousins, Louis Dupree and Maxine Adams Gardner.

Mrs. Raynor was a long-time Angier homemaker and landmark. She was visible daily, walking throughout town from store to store making her way to the post office and back home after stopping by to see her son, Kent at Angier Paint. Her longevity has been contributed to this daily exercise routine as she said, "get up every morning and dress to go somewhere, and most important of all, have young friends to drive you places." Mrs. Raynor was Angier's Woman of the Year, 1997-1998. She was known for visiting and continually doing for friends and family. She was a charter member of Angier Eastern Star and an 83 year member of Angier United Methodist Church. She was a charter member of the Home Demonstration Club and Angier Senior Citizens Club.

The 911 attack on America stimulated Mrs. Raynor, who was blind and deaf, to knit about 100 large American Flags. These flags were sent all over the U.S., such as Wyoming, California, South Carolina, Colorado, Virginia, etc. She had lived almost 100 years but had never seen such an attack on our beloved country. She sent these to friends, relatives, businesses and U.S. President Bush.

The family will meet friends and family at Bryan-Lee Funeral Home, Angier, on Tuesday from 6-8 p.m. and at other times at the Kent Raynor home, 103 South Pleasant St., Angier, NC 27501.

Condolences may be sent to www.bryanleefuneralhome.com

Eliza Jane Adams Dupree

(courtesy of Billy Yeargin)

The attached obituaries of Liza Jane Adams Dupree appeared in the Zion Landmark - one written by her brother, Joseph E. Adams and one by her husband, Joseph Dupree.

The subject of this notice, Eliza Jane Adams Dupree, was a dear sister of mine in the flesh, but more dear in that spiritual relation to our dear Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, as I hope she was one of the Lord's poor and precious jewels. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." We sorrow not as those without hope. We believe our dear sister died or fell asleep in Jesus, and blessed are all such.

She possessed a meek and quiet spirit, was a faithful and devoted member of the church and delighted to have the brethren and sisters at her house, and especially the ministering brethren of whom she had a goodly number to stop with her. Many will remember her. We all miss her, but none so much as her dear husband, our brother Joseph Dupree. A good wife is of the Lord. He giveth and taketh away and we should bow in humble submission to his holy will and say blessed be his Holy name forever and ever. He doeth all things well and for the best. May the good Lord comfort the hearts of the bereaved and reconcile us all more and more to his righteous will in all things. In hope

JE ADAMS

It is with a sad and sorrowful heart, that I attempt to write for publication a notice of the death of my dear, kind and loving wife. She was the daughter of Joseph and Tiliatha Adams. She was born Feb. 10th, 1839 and died Nov. 23rd, 1898, making her stay on earth 59 years, 9 months and 13 days. She united with the church at Sandy Grove, Johnston Co. N.C. on Saturday before the 3rd Sunday in April 1888 and was baptized the next day by Elder J.T. Coats. She was a good and faithful member till her death. Her disease was typhoid fever.

We were happily united in marriage the 29th day of March 1865. She was a good, kind and loving wife, a good mother and mother-in-law, was the mother of eleven children, 3 dead, eight living, 6 boys and 2 girls, and seven grandchildren. She left 5 sisters and 2 brothers, a host of brethren, sisters and friends and myself to mourn our loss, but have good reason to believe our loss is her eternal gain. How sad it is to part with dear companions and friends. Oh! How much we miss her, but we all feel that our loss is her gain-desire to be submissive to the Lord's will. She said to me on the Sunday before she died that she was willing for the Lord to take her and dispose of her according to his will. We feel that it was his will to take her to himself and that she is now at rest where there is no more death, no more parting, where all is peace and happiness, there to sing God's praise for ever and ever, where we will see Jesus and be like him, in the prayer of her bereaved husband in hope. Brother Gold and all brethren, pray for me.

Eugenia “Jane” Stancil Dupree

Unknown Newspaper (Courtesy of Denise Chapell Stephenson)

10/1917

Mrs. Eugenia Dupree, wife of Mr. W. H. Dupree, was first married to Mr. William H. Dupree and in this union two children were born – Mr. Anguish Dupree and Miss Fannie Dupree. In the war of 1860-1865 he volunteered to serve his country and during this struggle he died, leaving behind to mourn, the poor widow and two children. After the war she was again married to another William H. Dupree and to this union three children were born, one dying in infancy, the other two being Misses Mary Dupree and Saphronia Dupree.

On June the 1st, 1915, Grandma stepped from the door and missing the step fell and was badly crippled, confining her to her bed and has not been able to turn in bed since for two years and five months, when on the 18th day of October, 1917, she passed away in the presence of her children, grandchildren and many friends. She was nearing her eightieth birthday when death overtook her.

It was sorrowful indeed to give up our loved one and to realize that she could not be spared to us any longer. Yet when we think seriously of the toils, sorrows, heartaches and pains of this life we cannot wish her back. We cannot doubt but that Heaven with all its joys is hers, for she left a bright evidence that all was well with her.

Grandma had a sweet disposition, was tender, loving and kind to everyone she met. To know her was to love her – the influence of her beautiful life, like the fragrance of a sweet flower, will always remain with us. We feel that she is sweetly resting with her Father in Heaven and will rest there in spirit until the resurrection morn, when her body will be raised from the grave in the likeness of the Savior and when soul and body will be reunited to live forever and forever more in the presence of the Lord.

Grandma leaves behind to mourn their loss a husband, two children, Mrs. A. R. Stancil and Mr. W. A. Dupree, fourteen grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren, besides a host of friends.

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

HER GRANDSON – J.E.D.

Joseph Dupree

Obituary courtesy of Billy Yeargin

Appeared in the Zion's Landmark. The Landmark is a publication distributed by the Primitive Baptist Organization. The Obituary was written by Elder Joseph E. Adams who was Eliza Jane's brother.

By request of the wife of Joseph Dupree and his children, I send you the following obituary.

The subject of this notice was born in Johnston County, North Carolina May, 30, 1838, and departed this life January 15, 1905, in the 67th year of his age. He was first married to Eliza Jane Adams, sister of the writer who passed from the scenes of earthly cares and trials some years ago. To this union were born six sons and two daughters, all living and married except two oldest daughters, Nancy Catharine and youngest son Henry Q. Dupree, 21 years old.

Brother Dupree was married the second time in 1901 to sister Sally Johnson, who is still living. He united with the Primitive Baptist church at Sandy Grove, Johnston County, North Carolina Saturday before the third Sunday in June, 1872, of which church he was afterwards appointed Deacon, which office he faithfully filled with credit to himself and satisfaction to the church until 1902, when a difficulty occurred between him and his brother. W. H. Dupree, in regards to a trival matter about their hogs, of which Joseph tried to labor with the brother according to the scriptures but failing to gain him, brought the matter to the church and after much wrangling, the church withdrew from them both after which Joseph made application for restoration making acknowledgments but the church or some of them would not hear, nor forgive him and he suffered a good deal and remained out as long as he lived, but never forsook the church nor the cause he dearly loved-attending the meetings when able. He had been greatly afflicted for many years with cough and lung trouble but suffered patiently til the end came the 3d Sunday evening, 15th of January at 3 p.m. That morning, he shaved himself, changed his clothes but was too feeble to attend the services at Sandy Grove that day. He went out to his dinner and eat as usual, after dinner, wrote a letter and put it in an envelope and his daughter said to him to wait until Quinton, his son came back to back the letter for him and he said he thought he would which were the last words he spoke; sitting in his chair by the fire, his daughter on one side and his wife, Sister Sally, on the other, they heard him make an unusual noise and his daughter looked towards him and saw he was giving away; went behind his chair took hold of him, putting her arms around him and his wife getting to him about the same time, he died in a minute or two without a struggle in his daughters arms. Sister Sally, his wife took some quilts and pillows and they laid him down and his daughter left to carry the news.

He was buried on Tuesday evening after, A great many people were there to witness the last tribute of respect to one whom they esteemed as a husband, father, and friend. The writer made some remarks at the grave and read some appropriate hymns and offered prayer. Thus has passed away from earthly scenes of suffering and afflictions to that upper and better kingdom, one whom I had known well for 30 years as a member and brother beloved and while he had been evil spoken of and hard things said of him, I had unshaken and unbroken confidence, love and fellowship for him as a child of God and that he died in the precious faith of our Lord Jesus Christ. In conclusion, let me say to his dear bereaved and lonely wife and weeping and sorrowing children, weep not as others without hope. May the good Lord bless you with the like precious faith and hope is my prayer.
